Soul Thrivers are undoubtedly one of the most original bands on the current European blues scene. On both acoustic and electric instruments, the trio uses raw, handmade country-blues, roots, gospel, folk and soul sounds to explore traditional and original compositions, awakening spirits and taking the audience on a journey through space and time.

The band began in 2013 as Black Kat and Kittens with the meeting of Adam Sikora and Dvora Davis. After collaborating with different guitar players and other musicians from the Berlin blues scene (and a first recording, 2014’s Gypsy Life), in 2019 they recorded You Better Watch with guitar player Nick Morrison, and renamed themselves the Soul Thrivers.

With wit, charm and a dynamic voice, Dvora Davis leads the audience through more than a hundred years of African-American music history. An English woman with Jamaican and Indian heritage, her singing is born from these roots and from her intense connection to the spirit-songs.

The Polish-born musician Adam Sikora presents not only his excellent harp playing, but also distinctive drums and vocals in the country-blues tradition.

The two founding members are joined by Nick Morrison, a French-American musician with an ecstatic, otherworldly guitar style. The result is a distinctive sound that will capture and rock any house.
